Director's Take

Greetings! The year seems to be flying by quickly! We are now approaching the end of our competitive marching season and things have gone well up to this point. I would like to thank everyone who has supported us through volunteering your services at a competition or the Golden State Field

Classic or just simply watching from the stands and cheering us on. This year's GSFC didn't quite have the number of competitors we are used to seeing, but the overall organization and leadership from our committee chairs were on par with past year's and again I consider it to be a great success. I especially want to thank our alumni and alumni parents who came back to lend a helping hand. It's always nice to see family return.

The Band and Color Guard have been very competitive throughout the season and I am looking forward to seeing their final performance at Field Championships. This year's Field Championships will be held at Warren High School in Downey. I hope everyone is able to join us for this special event. Another special event not too far off is our annual Winter Concert. This concert not only features the Band and Color Guard, but our usual special guests from Choral, Dance, and Drama departments. The concert will be held on Wednesday, December 16 starting at 7pm in the Gymnasium.

With marching season winding down, I think we all look forward to taking a little time off before second semester activities start up. I wish everyone a restful and relaxing holiday season!

Jonathan Chang
Director

The Sound Board

Hey everybody! As most of you know, the percussion section has been going through many changes with our new instructor, Pete Sapadin. We have been very successful in adapting to these changes, and we continue to improve everyday. We have new additional "percussion practices" from 3:45 to 6:00 on Wednesdays, which has benefited us greatly. In the last two competitions that had percussion awards, our drumline placed 1st and 2nd!

We are now at the point in our show where we are done with our drill, and can focus on making the music sound better, and making our forms look cleaner. Our rehearsals have been running smooth, and we have been getting a lot done. The rookies and vets are very motivated this year, and hopefully that continues through the season until champs! Be sure you all come out and support the RWMA for our few remaining shows! Thanks for all the support!!

Josh Scrivens (Sr), Percussion Section Leader

Greetings everyone! The marching season is going great so far. We just recently had our annual stadium assembly. This event was a success in showing the middle school and elementary school students what marching band is all about. The turn out was good, and the middle school and elementary school students enjoyed themselves. This was also a great opportunity for the RWMA. We had the opportunity to perform and gain experience, and in addition to that, we had a little fun with performing as individual sections.

We recently participated in a competition hosted by Los Altos. We went in pumped and ready to perform our best. At the competition, we performed well and we were all happy with the performance. All the rehearsing paid off because in the end, not only were we happy with how we performed, we walked away with a pretty good score as well. As our season ends, we get closer and closer towards championships. We hope to keep improving, so wish us luck as we conclude our season.

Derek Louie (Sr), Saxophone Section Leader

Hey Everyone! Can you believe that marching season is coming to a close and Christmas time is just around the corner? It seems like just yesterday that we, band members, were learning our first few coordinates for our first piece. Now, the performances at football games, GSFC, and the district showcase are all memories with only a couple of competitions left to perform. The concert tubas and French horns are out, along with the classic Christmas pieces.

On the business side of the RWMA, I'm one of the current co-historians for band. The job of the historian is taking pictures and videos of all band events throughout the year. At year's end, Brian Song, the other co-historian, and I will create an amazing slideshow as entertainment for the banquet. Collecting this media for the slideshow is no easy feat. We can't be everywhere at once with a camera. We are always looking for media and are able to provide CDs and lend a flash drive for your convenience. So, if you have any pictures or videos of RWMA practicing, performing, or relaxing, at ANY event, don't hesitate to contact me at m_mkay@yahoo.com. Thank you, and I hope you can delight us with your fantastic pictures.

Michael McKay (Soph), Tenor Saxophone & Publicity

President's Message

Thanksgiving is just around the corner and as I reflect on my tenure as WIM Club president to date, I have a lot to be thankful for. Foremost the support I have received from everyone starting with the 4th July Activities to the home football games, the Golden State Field Classic and all of the competitions in which we have participated. The consistent support from the parents have made, and continue to make the RWMA a success.

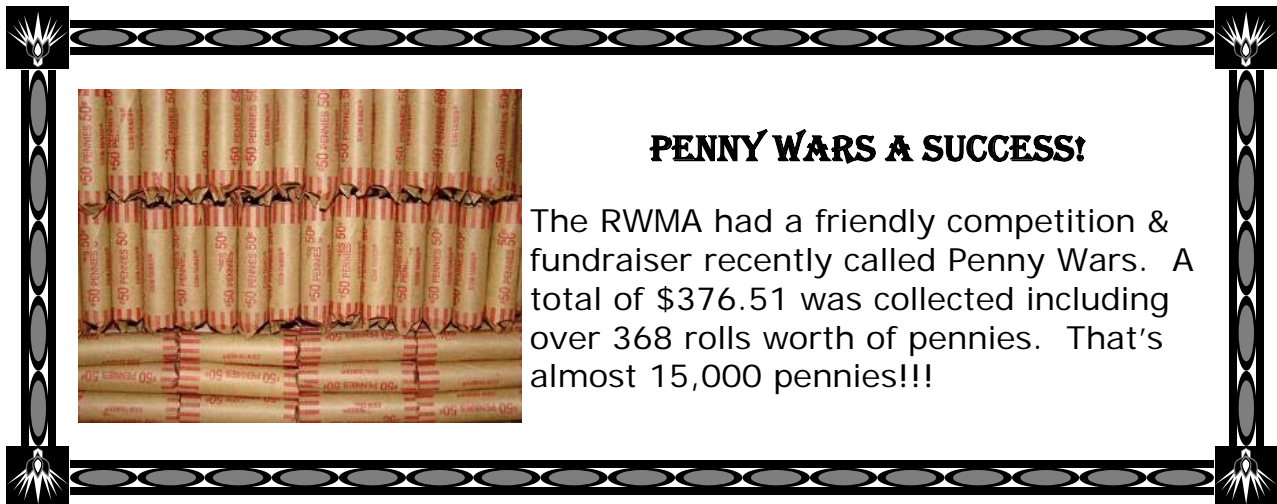

With each competition the band's performance has improved, we have one more tournament to attend, after which we wait to find out if we qualified for Championships. Being optimistic, I would like to remind you to keep December 5 open with the hopes of attending SCSBOA Championships.

The Golden State Field Classic, now a memory, while on a smaller scale than usual, was a success. Again many comments were heard complimenting us on the organization of the event. Thank you again to everyone who worked a shift or braved the entire day. As always it takes everyone working together in the organization to make it a success.

I would also like to thank a couple of dads who have gone above & beyond the call of duty; Dunn Ishida and John Louie. We had some equipment that needed repairs and after a couple of phone calls, both men came to the band rescue with tools in hand. I'm not talking about simple hand tools that we all probably have in our garages, rather air compressors and welding tools! Thank you again gentlemen for your dedication.

There are a few other items for you to make note of. Mark your calendars for the Hometown Buffet Fundraiser on December 9. The last scrip order will also be placed that day – scrip makes great Christmas gifts! Also, December 16 at 7:00 pm is the Winter Concert. Be sure to join us as we kick off the Holiday Season.
